

AERA 2025 Annual Conference Lesson Study

Improving Teaching and Learning About Justice Through Lesson Study

Andrew Walton PhD
Teacher Educator

Jeanne Connelly PhD
Teacher Educator

Lina Martín-Corredor PhD
Teacher Educator

Maria Magallanes MA
Teacher Educator

In person Lesson Study event at the Metropolitan State University of Denver's School of Education in collaboration with the innovative and energetic Social Justice Lesson Study Team. This visit will be exclusive for AERA LS SIG members. The lesson study will be an amazing opportunity to gather in person to discuss the lesson study work that this team of interdisciplinary teacher educators and researchers collaboratively do to integrate social justice into their instruction. Their areas of expertise include special education (Jeanne Connelly, PhD), culturally and linguistically diverse education (Andrew Walton, PhD), bilingual education (Lina Martín-Corredor PhD), and literacy development (Maria Magallanes MA).

Andrew Walton and Mark Koester are co-chairs of the Site Visit Committee for the 2025 AERA Annual Meeting. Register using the link or QR code below.

QUESTIONS? Please contact Karie Brown
Lesson Study SIG Program
Chair
kbrown383@gsu.edu

Pre-meeting: April 8, 5:30pm MT
Lesson Study: April 25, 8:45am MT

RSVP     2025 SIG Lesson Study